

A CONFERENCE FOR EMERGING LEADERS

Transforming Lives

Isaiah 30:21

September 17-19, 2010

Sponsored by Friends United Meeting
at the Quaker Hill Conference Center
Richmond, Indiana

God is stirring up new leaders for today. Friends have always emphasized that ministry is not exclusively or even primarily limited to those who may enter pastoral service or other paid ministries. This conference seeks to affirm ministry and leadership of all who seek to perform Christian service in whatever life-setting they are in. Some of those may eventually be called to pastoral service or mission work, others will not. In any event, the call of Christ is on them, and this conference will:

- be a source of spiritual encouragement and blessing
- offer practical training in some aspects of ministry and leadership
- be a great opportunity to network with other leaders from across the yearly meetings that make up Friends United Meeting

This is an invitational conference for committed Christians whose gifts of leadership have been noted locally but are probably not yet well known beyond their own Meeting. There is no age limit, but we expect most attendees will be young adults or older. We expect to have 50–70 participants.

We want to offer our Emerging Leaders opportunities to strengthen their gifts and pursue their call to leadership among Friends. We believe your organization has valuable resources to offer our participants and would like to partner with you in raising up solid leaders among Friends.

We would be honored to have you as one of our sponsors for this event.
